The Shoe Question.

I asked one of the belles of Fifth avenue if she allowed a shoe clerk to put on her shoes.

"Why, of course I do," she said,

"and lace them up too. That is what a shoe clerk is for. Only a silly woman with country ideas, or a common woman who looks upon the clerk as a probable sweetheart, would object to a shoe clerk putting on her shoes. Every well bred lady in New York expects the clerk to lace a new pair of shoes."

"But suppose the clerk should remark, 'You have a pretty foot,' or 'Your foot is small,' would you be indignant?"

"Certainly not. I should consider the remark the same as if a servant

had made it. If this Miss Cottrell, of Richmond, had been a true lady,

she would never have made such a silly fool of herself, and if Pointerer had not been a harem woman gone,

without a true gentleman's instincts,

he would not have killed Mr. Curtis, the simple and innocent shoe clerk."

"Do you allow a young gentleman clerk to put on a new kid glove?"

"Yes. In Paris the glove-clerk always puts on a new glove for you.

While I would not allow a young gentleman friend to put on my glove,

I consider it highly proper for a glove-

clerk to do it."

"Suppose a gentleman at a party in your set should squeeze your hand in the lancers, what would you do?"

"Now, that is a different thing. If he were an intimate friend, I should take it as a joke; if he were my lover, I should return it; but if a casual acquaintance, and I thought he squeezed my hand impudently, I would cut him dead. I shouldn't tell any one, but the man would suffer a silent punishment."

"Would you go back three times to the same clerk, as did Miss Cottrell,

if he said your foot was pretty?"

"Yes, if I had business there. If his remarks offended me, I should tell him to make no remark. I shouldn't have gone to my lover with a silly story. The fact is, this whole Richmond foolishness occurred among common, ill-bred people, not used to the usages of refined society; and then the aristocratic young lady buttoned up her ten-button kid and prepared for a promenade. [Eli Perkins

Young Men's Photographs.

The "Handy man" says that old men's portraits are more natural than young men's, for they think less about themselves when they sit for their pictures.

Did you ever notice how little character a young man's face expresses as a general thing, any how? Did you ever notice the photographs of young men? Go into any gallery, and look at them, and all the conceit there is in a young man's nature and being shines forth in his photograph. He can't help it.

He may not be very conceited naturally, but when he sits for his photograph, to save his soul he can't help thinking about himself, and how he is going to look; and so, modest and retiring as he may be in his actual life

he sits there and thinks about himself

all the time, and then the picture is Imprisonment by Placement.

A good story is told of Judge Kent.

A man was indicted for burglary, and the evidence on the trial showed that his burglary consisted in cutting a hole through a rubber tent, in which several persons were sleeping, and then projecting his head and arm through the hole and abstracting various articles of value. It was claimed by his counsel that, inasmuch, as he never actually entered in to the tent with his whole body, he had not committed the offense charged, and must, therefore, be discharged. Judge Kent, in reply to this plea, told the jury that, if they were not satisfied that the whole man was involved in the crime,

they might bring in a verdict of guilty against so much of him as was thus involved. The jury, after a few moments of consultation, found the right man, the right shoulder, and the head of the prisoner guilty of the offense of burglary. The Judge sentenced the right arm, the right shoulder, and head to imprisonment at hard labor in the State Prison for two years, remarking that, as to the rest of his body, he might do with it what he pleased.

Bank of England.

The Bank of England will be 185

years old the 27th of the coming July,

having received its charter of incorporation at that date, and having been projected by William Patterson, a Scotchman. Constituted as a joint-stock company, with a capital of £1,- 200,000, the whole sum was lent at interest to the Government of William and Mary, then much embarrassed. At the outset it was a servant of the State, and has ever since continued such, more or less. The charter granted at first for eleven years, has been from time to time renewed, the last renewal, subject to modification or revocation, having been in 1844.

For a while the business was done in one room; now the bank occupies, as every one knows, a large building in Threadneedle street, and employs some 800 men. Nothing less than a £5 note is issued the second time. The average amount of notes in circulation is £25,000,000.

PAT ON THE ROAD.—An Irishman,

driven to desperation by the stringency of the money market and the high price of provisions, procured a pistol and took the road. Meeting a traveler, he stopped him with:

"Your money or your life?"

Seeing Pat was green at the business, the traveler said:

"I'll tell you what I'll do: I'll give all my money for that pistol."

"Agreed!"

"Pat, receiving the money, handed over the pistol.

"Now," said the traveler, hand-back that money or I'll blow your brains out!"

"Blaze away my hearty," said Pat,

"niver a drap of powder is there in it."

Oysters in China are frequently dried for use instead of being eaten

fresh. They are taken from the shells, plunged for an instant into boiling water, and then exposed to the rays of the sun until every particle of moisture has evaporated, and then it is said they will keep for a length of time, while preserving the full delicacy of their flavor. The finest and An Itinerant's Subterfuge.

The Rev. Daniel Isaacs once alighted at an inn to stay all night. On asking for a bed, he was told that he could have one, as there was to be a ball that evening, and all the beds were engaged.

"At what time do does the ball break up?" inquired Mr. Isaacs.

"About three in the morning, sir."

"Well, then, can I have a bed until that time?"

"Yes, certainly; but if the bed is asked for you will have to move."

"Very well," replied Mr. Isaacs, and away he went to get between the sheets.

About three in the morning he was awakened by a loud knocking at the chamber door.

"What do you want?" he asked.

"How many of you are there in there?" inquired a voice.

"There's me, and Daniel, and Mr.

Isaacs, and an old Methodist preacher," was the reply.

"Then, by Jupiter, there's plenty of you!" and the speaker passed on, leaving Mr. Isaacs to enjoy his bed.

An Eastern man, accustomed to the luxuries to be had at Delmonico's, dropped into a restaurant in a Nevada mining town for dinner.

The head waiter, who was also junior proprietor of the establishment, accosted him with, "Well, Colonel,

what'll you have?"

"Beefsteak and mushrooms," answered the "colonel," as "pet" as possible.

"Guess not," said the waiter, who felt that he was being "guyed."

"Guess not? Why not? Bring me

a beefsteak with mushrooms right away."

"Look here, stranger," said the waiter, "I don't want to make no trouble, yer know, but I don't allow no man to quarrel with his vittles in this ranch."

With that he took a six-shooter

from his hip pocket, cocked it, and

Hon. JOHN C. CARLISLE, representative from the 6th Kentucky District, has returned from New York, where he went by invitation to address the Democracy on the attitude of Congress. His speech met with great enthusiasm, and he is convinced that the "Northern Democracy are united in support of the position taken by the majority in Congress, and that a firm front on the part of the people's representatives will be sustained by the united Democratic party." Mr. Carlisle has accepted an invitation to speak on the same subject at Boston, and will appear there at an early day. There is no man in Congress who is probably better able to fulfill such a task than Mr. Carlisle. He is a fine scholar, a good speaker, and his words of truth and soberness carry conviction with them. He is rapidly taking his place as one of the leaders of our party, and with his clear head and strong arm at the helm we can not go far from the straight course.

The Senate has passed by a vote of 37 to 27, the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bills with all the political riders as passed by the House, and it was sent to the President yesterday. His veto is expected by Monday, but until then no action will be taken on the army bill. No definite course is yet mapped out by the Democrats, but it seems to be the general belief that after the President has been tried in every way to give his sanction to the repeal of the test oath and the law allowing troops at the polls, without success, they will pass the appropriation bills and leave the issue to the people. The Republicans have put themselves on record in favor of every movement towards a despotism and opposed to every measure that will tend to heal up the wounds and differences of the war, and it but remains for the party to be blotted out by the overwhelming votes of a free people!

In an article on the situation, Hon. Henry Watterson publishes the following: "It is we, the Democrats, who have caught you, you the Republicans, in a trap. We have committed you to Grant, and Grantism, a year before your time. We have you committed to the rule of the bayonet. We have you committed to jury test-oaths—by which your own Judges and your own Prosecuting Attorneys can not sit upon the juries they instruct and plead. We drop you on your knees. We shall take you on your own issue, and we shall see whether you can consolidate the North upon the ruins of the South, and, ultimately, the murder of the men, women and children of the South, upon a scheme to make our Government a military despotism. The issue will be Despotism or Democracy—which?"

The President of the United States of necessity owes his election to office to the suffrage and zealous labors of a political party, the members of which cherish with ardor and regard as of essential importance to the principles of their party organization. But he should strive to be always mindful of the fact that he serves his party best who serves the country best.—[Hayes in 1877.]

We learn with regret that Mr. Mat O'Doherty, Republican candidate for Register of the Land Office, has been compelled by business engagements to decline to make the race. This takes one Irishman from the State ticket, and we are disturbed lest our other friend of the "rich Irish brogue," Mr. O'Bready, will follow suit. But then he's too plucky a man for that.

It is said that Hendricks is doing a good deal of quiet work in the West and South just now for the Presidential nomination. He is not willing to accept the second place again on the ticket, and his agents are abroad to convince State Conventions that he is the man to lead the party to victory next year. Mr. Hendricks is a shrewd man in politics.

A CAREFUL perusal of Hon. Phil B. Thompson, Jr.'s speech before the House of Representatives when the appropriation bill was up, will convince the greatest of his enemies of his ability and tact. Everything considered, it is the best speech delivered this session. "Little Phil" has gone away up in everybody's estimation.

In an article favoring the reduction of the standing army to 10,000, the New York Sun says: "An army of 10,000 men is plenty large enough to take care of the Texas frontier and look after the Indians. It will be too large, by 10,000 men, if it is to be used as a makeweight in party politics."

Vice-President Wheeler will not return to Washington during the present special session. He suffers from extreme nervousness, which disturbs his sleep, and, moreover, prefers fishing for black bass to being a figurehead for the National Debating Society. A much better man fills his place.

The Radicals have given up their Holt, at last.

News Notes.
Judge Hargis was elected by fully 3,000 majority.
The Parquet Springs Hotel burned to the ground on the night of the 16th. Loss, $25,000.
Williams, Birnie & Co., the heavy cotton brokers of New York, have failed for over $315,000.

Ripe peaches at $8 per bushel, and watermelons at $1 each, are in the market at Galveston, Texas.
Three negroes were hung in Hillsboro, N. C., last Friday, under the new law, which makes burglary a capital offense.

Miss Vaders, a young actress, fell through a trap door while playing "Engaged" in Louisville Tuesday night, and broke her leg.

W. H. Clement is appointed General Manager, and H. H. Tatem, Secretary and Treasurer of the new Cincinnati Southern R. R. Company.

New York has just passed a bill that makes 6 per cent. the legal rate of interest after next January, instead of 7, as the law now stands.

Buford has gotten a change of venue to Owen County, and his trial is set for July 8th. In the meantime he is confined in the Louisville jail.

The Lexingtonians are cogitating whether they will rebuild the Phoenix Hotel. A good hostelry has been needed for many years in the capital of the Blue-grass.

The proposition for Madison to subscribe $250,000 towards the building of the New River Gorge Railroad in Three Forks, was defeated Wednesday, by about 300 majority.

By a decision in the United States Supreme Court, a Union soldier can not be held to answer in the seceded States for any offense committed while a soldier in those States.

The Grand Jury of Mason is being urged to bring in an indictment against Tom Green, of the Maysville Eagle, for criminal libel against Judge Hargis. It might teach Tom a lesson.

At the close of a session of Hancock Court of Claims the members made an appropriation to themselves of $200 each and deducted the claims at $180 each. They were indicted and fined $10 and costs each.

A training stable occupied by William Downing burned at Richmond Wednesday afternoon. Three fine young trotters were consumed in the flames. The loss of the stable and provender is estimated at $500; the horses burned at $800. No insurance.

A new company of Cincinnati men, under the name of the "Cincinnati Southern Railroad Company" have complied with the terms of the new lease and will take possession of the road at once. It is hoped and believed that the old officers will be retained.

By the laws of Utah, a man sentenced to die has to be shot to death. The last victim was a man named Wilkerson, who had committed murder. He sat in a chair in an open space and without even closing his eyes received the discharges from their guns. He was dead in 27 minutes.

A Boston emigration company, headed by a number of leading citizens, has purchased 60,000 acres of land in Tennessee, on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, forty miles from the Kentucky line, and will lay out a city and populate it and surrounding with Massachusetts colonization.

Judge Dillon of the U. S. Supreme Court has resigned, to take effect Sept. 1st, and the President has signified his intention of giving the position to Secretary of War, McCrary. It is a life position, and is worth $7,500 per year. Dillon will become professor of a New York Law School.

Judge Hughes of the United States Court of Virginia, refused to interfere in the case of Edmund Kinney, negro, and Mary Hall, white, who were sent to the Penitentiary for five years for unlawfully marrying; on the ground that the United States Courts have no jurisdiction in questions of marriage.

Col. Stoddard Johnston has inspected the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Danville—the only institution of its kind established west of the mountains—and while generally pleased with his visit, he says the boys' department is ill suited to its purpose, and a new building should be provided by the Legislature.—[C. J.]

Some weeks since a drunken man jumped from the railing of the Cincinnati Suspension Bridge to the water below, a distance of ninety-two feet, and in a few days was as sound as ever. A man named Price, tried last Saturday, but he won't do any more. His body had not been found at last accounts.

Mr. Gus C. Matthews, of the Courier-Kentuckian, has been appointed by Colonel J. Stoddard Johnston, President of the Kentucky Press Association, to deliver the annual address at Bowling Green, and will comply. He is a very graceful and eloquent speaker, and will do honor to the association.—[Frankfort Yeoman.]

The Virginia negroes held a Convention the other day and resolved that they organize in to emigration societies for the purpose of leaving the State, as they can not get their rights in the midst of the uncompromising oppressors of their race. They are mad because Judge Hughes failed to interfere in the miscegenation case.

Cotton has advanced in Liverpool 11 pence since March 1st, and 35 cents in New York. The advance is based upon a considerable deficiency in the visible supply. Owing to the buoyancy in cotton, and the rise in wool, a number of manufacturers of Kentucky jeans have advanced the price of their goods 5 cents per yard.

Forty or fifty thousand pounds of wool were sold at the Sheep-raiders' Sale at Eminence on Wednesday, as follows: Dink-cleugh & Son, of Louisville, bought the complete wool at 27 cents; John Bradberry, of Lexington, bought the Delane wool at 26 1/2 cents; L. Richardson & Co., of Louisville, bought the clothing wool 26 6-10 cents; J. W. Berry, of LaGrange, bought the black and clothed wool at 26 1/2 cents.

Wm. Allen, alias Storey of St. Louis, who eloped with Jennie Achley, wife of a farmer of Batavia, Ohio, a few days since, was arrested in Cincinnati and placed in jail at Batavia. At an early hour Wednesday morning a mob entered the jail, seized Storey, and hung him from the neck and hung him on one of the timbers of the bridge over Little Miami river. After hanging a few moments the rope broke, Storey dropped into the river and succeeded in gaining the shore. He was taken to a hotel, where he now lies in bed in a bruised condition.

Wm. S. Frank, of Maysville, has been made the Democratic nominee for Criminal Justice, to succeed Judge Hargis.

Wm. G. Stone, ex-City Treasurer of Covington, Ky., was yesterday convicted of omitting to make correct returns and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. A motion was made for a new trial, awaiting which the prisoner was lodged in jail.

Mr. R. C. Warren, of Stanford, and Geo. Stone, Esq., of Somerset, Democratic candidates for the nomination to make the race for Commonwealth's Attorney in the 8th Judicial District, addressed the citizens of Russell county, at Jamestown, last Monday. These gentlemen are both talented, and were listened to with marked attention.—[Columbia Spectator.]

BOLEY COUNTY.

Danville.
A BUSY PLACE.—A business college, a street sprinkler and a telephone are the latest in operation.

DEATHS.—At the residence of A. H. Sneed, on Saturday morning last, Mrs. Ann E. Gill. On the 18th inst., Philip Johnson, in the 41st year of his age.

THE COUNTY LEVY.—For 1879 has been laid at twenty cents on the $100; 15 cents railroad tax; of which tax, 5 cents—a reduction of 5 cents from that of last year.

BANK STOCK.—Ten shares of Farmers National Bank stock sold last week for $105, and ten shares of the First National Bank brought $109 at public sale on Monday.

DECORATION.—The beautiful custom of strewing the soldiers' graves with flowers will be observed at the Confederate lot in the Danville Cemetery on the 26th inst., at 5 o'clock, P. M.

PERSONAL.—Hon. M. J. Durham will leave for Annapolis, Md., about June 1st. He is Chairman of a Congressional Committee to visit the Naval Academy, appointed whilst a M. C. by Speaker Randall. Rev. W. F. Junkin, D. D., of Charleston, S. C., formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this place, is expected in Danville during the week, and will probably appear before his old congregation next Sunday.

COUNTY COURT.—The live stock trade on County Court day was quiet as active. Capt. English reports about 600 head of cattle on the market and the following sales made by him: Twelve head of good calves at $23.10 per head; 20 head at $22; 25 head of 57 head sold at $23.35; 25 head at $22.85; 16 head at $32.82 per cow; 19 head at $18.50; 35 head at $21.80; 49 head at $21.40. One nice saddle mare sold for $88.

WHO ARE YOU, ANY WAY?—His Excellency, Governor McCrary, met with a rebuff in attempting to renew an old acquaintance at one of the receptions tendered the medical fraternity last week. Harrison Wickliffe, a colored man, for about a quarter of a century janitor of Centre College, and one who would not in the least be daunted by the presence of the most imperious potentate on earth, was re-refused entrance to the reception at the hospitable residence of Dr. McKee. The Governor called late, and recognizing an old friend, extending his hand, saying, "Well, Professor, how is your health?" A reluctant hand was held out to the head of this great Commonwealth, and surveying his interlocutor with scrutiny, if not suspicion, Harrison replied, "My health is good, but who are you?" There was fun at the Governor's expense that night.

A WOMAN'S KISS.—The able address of Dr. Gross of Philadelphia upon the dedication of the McDowell Monument has been published, and we are reminded of a little incident connected with its delivery in the 2nd Presbyterian Church last Wednesday evening. At the conclusion of the exercises many of his appreciative auditors ascended the rostrum to speak to the eminent surgeon, who had paid such a noble tribute to the "blackwoodman," and among them a distinguished looking lady, grand-daughter of the pioneer surgeon, Dr. Gross was much moved by her kind congratulatory expressions and asked that she would kiss him, and the request was granted. It was a high honor bestowed upon the distinguished man, who had established for Dr. Ephraim McDowell his claim to the title, "Father of Ovariectomy."

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.
St. Vernon.
THANKS.—"U. Know" will please accept our thanks for his excellent letter to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, written in our absence last week.

RAIN.—Several good showers of rain which fell in different parts of the county last week, greatly enlivened the hearts of the farmers who were complaining of the protracted drouth.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—By a recent change in the running of trains, the freight train going South, arrives at 8 o'clock, A. M., and returning North, arrives at 10 o'clock, P. M. This change is quite a convenient one.

WHITE—WEST.—At the residence of J. T. Clark, in this place, on the evening of the 18th inst., Mr. Robert J. White was married to Miss Lucy West. These young people have loved each other long and well, but a cruel fate, a mere cruel parent, and the intermeddling of neighbors, have kept them apart. They have, though, at last, overcome all difficulties and are happy in the consciousness that "whom God hath joined together no man can put asunder." That their married life may be one of unalloyed happiness, we most sincerely wish.

FOR CHILD MURDER.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. Sallie Reasons, tried at the recent term of our Circuit Court, resulted in a verdict of guilty, and a sentence of imprisonment for five years in the Penitentiary. The defendant was indicted for the murder of her illegitimate offspring, and the Court gave an instruction to the jury on the crime of "attempting by drowning or secretly burying the same to conceal the fact of the child's being born alive, &c." under which instruction the verdict was found. Counsel for defendant then moved for her dismissal from custody, on the ground that the jury could not find her guilty of such an offense under an indictment for murder. The Court overruled the motion and the case will go to the Court of Appeals.

"U. KNOW" ON TOP.—The very weak effort of "U. Know" to poke fun at our fishing party last week, was the saddest thing in gaining the shore. He was taken to a hotel, where he now lies in bed in a bruised condition. A bull-dog of mud-turtle would be ashamed to own that he was the author of such a shallow article. The fact is, "U. Know" has been retreating terribly in his harness since John White, a lawyer from Clay county, walked into him so fiercely in a speech he made during the last term of our Circuit Court. He has been wanting to vent his spleen upon some body, and we suspect there was more malice than humor in his article of last week. He was afraid to tackle White, and jumps on us instead. But he can't provoke us into a declaration of war. Our experience with water-dogs last week, was quite sufficient for us. Let this whole matter now be consigned to a watery grave, and let there be no attempt made to fish it up.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Robert L. Brooks, a young gentleman of this place, left last week for Missouri, in which State he expects to make his future home. Mr. Jno. Pointer, who left here for Illinois, where he expects to locate. Miss Maggie Smith, a very beautiful and agreeable young lady from Garrard county, is visiting Miss Mollie Henderson. Mrs. M. Hale, of Louisville, accompanied by her son, Willie Hale, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Terrill, near this place. Messrs. J. C. Herndon and Ed. Hogan, traveling agents for Bradley & Gilbert, and James P. Morton & Co., passed through here this week en route to the mountains. Dr. S. W. Brown and family, left here Wednesday morning, for Point Lick, Garrard county, where they will make their home in future. Doctor Brown was reared in this county, and after active practice of his profession for fifteen years in his village, departs, taking with him the best wishes of our people. He and his most excellent wife have many warm friends here, who regret to see them leave, but wish them prosper wherever they go. To the people of Point Lick, we recommend them as desirable citizens. Lieut. John Scott, of the U. S. Army, accompanied by his wife and child are visiting this place. Lieut. Scott was stationed here for several years just after the war, and has a host of friends here. The Division with which he is at present engaged, is in Montana Territory.

THE SAUNDERS MATTER.—It is not any desire to engage in a discussion with the editor of this paper. His course has generally met the approval of all law-abiding, fair minded citizens. The people of Rockcastle county admire him for his fearless and outspoken condemnation of lawlessness, and to that fact may be attributed in a great degree, the quite respectable circulation which the INTERIOR JOURNAL has attained in our county. Justice to the good name of our people, demands, however, that I should issue an editorial in the last week's issue. I allude to the article commenting on the result of the trial of George Saunders for the murder of the negro, Middleton, which trial was had at the recent term of our Circuit Court. The writer of the article was evidently misinformed as to the facts in the case, and did not understand the "true inwardness of affairs" quite as well as he imagined. This must be true; for I would be slow to believe that the writer, or his informant could be prompted by any sinister motive to cast a reflection on the people of this county. Many persons may have believed that George Saunders was guilty of the crime with which he was charged, still it is the policy of the law to presume the innocence of all offenders, and no right-minded jury will find a man guilty of murder unless he is proven guilty, and by the testimony of reputable witnesses. In the case of George Saunders, the Commonwealth simply failed to establish his guilt, though thirty witnesses were sworn for the prosecution. The assertion made by the writer of the article referred to, that the jury were organized to acquit, had no foundation in fact. To any one acquainted with some of those composing the jury, the assertion that they would violate their oaths, would have no other effect than to excite a ridicule for the man who made it.

We sincerely trust that the vigilant Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eighth District will allow no more of Lincoln county's criminals to have changes of venue to this county. We do not want them here. But if they come here, and no better class of witnesses can be produced against them than in the Saunders case, rest assured that our jurors will turn them all loose. And it makes no difference whether the witnesses are white or black. A good negro will be believed here just as readily as a good white man. Perjured, no matter what their color, will obtain no credit.

And it makes no difference whether the witnesses are white or black. A good negro will be believed here just as readily as a good white man. Perjured, no matter what their color, will obtain no credit.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Robert L. Brooks, a young gentleman of this place, left last week for Missouri, in which State he expects to make his future home. Mr. Jno. Pointer, who left here for Illinois, where he expects to locate. Miss Maggie Smith, a very beautiful and agreeable young lady from Garrard county, is visiting Miss Mollie Henderson. Mrs. M. Hale, of Louisville, accompanied by her son, Willie Hale, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Terrill, near this place. Messrs. J. C. Herndon and Ed. Hogan, traveling agents for Bradley & Gilbert, and James P. Morton & Co., passed through here this week en route to the mountains. Dr. S. W. Brown and family, left here Wednesday morning, for Point Lick, Garrard county, where they will make their home in future. Doctor Brown was reared in this county, and after active practice of his profession for fifteen years in his village, departs, taking with him the best wishes of our people. He and his most excellent wife have many warm friends here, who regret to see them leave, but wish them prosper wherever they go. To the people of Point Lick, we recommend them as desirable citizens. Lieut. John Scott, of the U. S. Army, accompanied by his wife and child are visiting this place. Lieut. Scott was stationed here for several years just after the war, and has a host of friends here. The Division with which he is at present engaged, is in Montana Territory.

THE SAUNDERS MATTER.—It is not any desire to engage in a discussion with the editor of this paper. His course has generally met the approval of all law-abiding, fair minded citizens. The people of Rockcastle county admire him for his fearless and outspoken condemnation of lawlessness, and to that fact may be attributed in a great degree, the quite respectable circulation which the INTERIOR JOURNAL has attained in our county. Justice to the good name of our people, demands, however, that I should issue an editorial in the last week's issue. I allude to the article commenting on the result of the trial of George Saunders for the murder of the negro, Middleton, which trial was had at the recent term of our Circuit Court. The writer of the article was evidently misinformed as to the facts in the case, and did not understand the "true inwardness of affairs" quite as well as he imagined. This must be true; for I would be slow to believe that the writer, or his informant could be prompted by any sinister motive to cast a reflection on the people of this county. Many persons may have believed that George Saunders was guilty of the crime with which he was charged, still it is the policy of the law to presume the innocence of all offenders, and no right-minded jury will find a man guilty of murder unless he is proven guilty, and by the testimony of reputable witnesses. In the case of George Saunders, the Commonwealth simply failed to establish his guilt, though thirty witnesses were sworn for the prosecution. The assertion made by the writer of the article referred to, that the jury were organized to acquit, had no foundation in fact. To any one acquainted with some of those composing the jury, the assertion that they would violate their oaths, would have no other effect than to excite a ridicule for the man who made it.

We sincerely trust that the vigilant Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eighth District will allow no more of Lincoln county's criminals to have changes of venue to this county. We do not want them here. But if they come here, and no better class of witnesses can be produced against them than in the Saunders case, rest assured that our jurors will turn them all loose. And it makes no difference whether the witnesses are white or black. A good negro will be believed here just as readily as a good white man. Perjured, no matter what their color, will obtain no credit.

Mr. Nick Ray, Jr., of Lebanon, spent several days with Mr. L. G. Edlin, at the Myers House, this week.

MRS. M. C. SATTLER, of Stanford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. GLOSTER, of this place.—(Lebanon Standard.)

JUNIOR ROBERTSON, Esq., of Louisville, who recently obtained license to practice law, showed his handsome countenance here last Sunday.

WE AGAIN welcome with pleasure the interesting letters of R. T. TWICKER, Esq., of Bayville, who has promised to keep us posted on the news in his town in the future.

LOCAL MATTERS.

NEW PARASOLS at McAlister & Lytle's.

GERMAN MILLET SEED at Weber & Evans.

A FRESH stock of Hamburgs open this week at McAlister & Lytle's.

SODA WATER.—Bussy is the first to furnish this cold and refreshing drink. Call and try a glass.

A DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.—Will be held here next Monday week (County Court day), for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Legislature. Let every body turn out.

I HAVE the best Pump in the world for sale. Warrant in every respect. Two hundred in use in this county giving perfect satisfaction. I have also 100,000 plants, embracing all the best varieties. A. G. Pendleton.

A MONUMENT.—To the memory of the Confederate dead buried at Dutton's Hill, Pulaski county, will be erected on the 23rd. Perdue & Ziegler, who have a branch shop at Crab Orchard, are making the shaft, which is to cost $300.

TAN BARK.—Quite a number of care o tan bark have been shipped from this point this season, but there is not that interest manifested in the trade as formerly. It is only worth after loading on the cars and paying freight to Louisville, $10 per cord.

A YOUTHFUL PRINTER.—Little Jimmie Beasley, just 11 years old, came into this office Wednesday morning, without an idea of the portion of any letter in the case. He soon learned, however, and with but little directions, succeeded in setting about 1,000 m's of reprint, and made extra good proof. We don't believe there is a grown man in town that could have learned the "hoax" in a day, much less get the hang of type setting.

McALISTER & LITTLE have received a large and elegant stock of FANS.

AN ELECTION.—For School Trustees will be held in all the School Districts on Saturday, June 7th.

WELLS.—A. A. Benedict is in town and prepared to bore you a well in short order. See him before he moves his machine.

BIG TREE.—Mr. Henry Baughman cut down a big tree in the knob the other day, from which he got five saw logs. After it was sawed into lumber it measured 5,239 feet.

PHOTO.—A couple of young men fell out and "bit" here this week, but they paid their fines so promptly that we have not heart to give their names. We will not spare them next time, however.

THE NATIONAL MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION.—Of Louisville, through Mr. A. A. McKinney, local agent, paid Mrs. James Anderson, of Livingston, the full amount of insurance due her by the death of her husband, amounting to $2,285.60. This association now numbers over 2,900.

PISTOL TOTES.—Sinner Gormley, of Crab Orchard, was indicted by the last grand jury for carrying a pistol concealed. It would probably never have been discovered, but the weapon behaved badly in the bench. Gormley was tried here this week and sent up for 10 days, a fine of $25 besides, being placed opposite his name. He is now serving out his sentence.

THE BOY FISHING.—Mr. A. S. Myers and Capt. Geo. H. McKinney, went to Rockcastle river last week, and after a short and pleasant stay, returned with six five-pound fish. In the lot were a Pike 37 inches long, that weighed 12 lbs., and another 26 inches, weighing 7 pounds. These gentlemen showed their works by its fruits, and did not come home without the good big tales for which Parson Bohon has become so renowned.

TARRANT COLLEGE.—The Commencement Exercises of Tarrant Female College, Crab Orchard, will begin next Sunday at 11 o'clock, with the regular sermon by Rev. J. S. Sims, of this place. On Monday night at 8 o'clock the Sophomore Class will give an exhibition. Tuesday night, Junior exhibition, and on Wednesday night the valedictory of Miss Anna Buchanan will close the session. The services will be held in the Christian Church, and the public are invited to attend.

ALDERNEY BUTTER.—The Myers House besides for its many other good things, is noted in every line that a drummer has succeeded in navigating for the superiority of its Alderney butter. The Madame of the house sees that it is prepared in the cleanest and nicest manner, and he who puts his tooth into it can swallow without the usual thoughts about ways that are dark of dairy maid.

A WOMAN in Ohio, last week, was divorced from her husband and married to another man by the same Judge that made the decree, less than ten minutes intervening between the snapping of the old bonds and the putting on of the new.

HAYDEN—BUTLER.—Yesterday, at 4 P. M., at the residence of Dr. Pettus, in Lancaster, Hon. Leo Hayden, of this county, and Mrs. Malinda Butler (nee Miller), were united in marriage. Rev. J. M. Bruce performed the ceremony before a small party of friends and relatives, after which the contracting parties left for the groom's handsome residence near Stanford.

Although Mr. Hayden has been married four times before, and is somewhat on the shady side of three-score and ten, he is nevertheless, hale and hearty, and is as youthful and active as any man twenty-five years his junior. The best wishes of the INTERIOR JOURNAL are cordially extended to the happy pair.

RELIGIOUS.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will meet next time in Charleston, S. C.

Rev. J. S. Sims will preach the Commencement Sermon for Tarrant Female College, at Crab Orchard, next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Rev. C. M. Reid is assisting Mr. Sims in a protracted meeting at the Methodist Church this week. The services are well attended, and a religious interest is shown, but no visible results are shown yet.

Rev. Jos. R. Wilson, D.D., of Wilmington, N. C., presided over the deliberations of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church at Louisville, he has been either stated or permanent Clerk since 1861.

The number of Sunday-school scholars on Sunday, were, Presbyterian, 65; Methodist, 30; Christian, 107; Baptist, 42. Recollect that the award of those singing books to the school that has had the largest increase since the last Sunday in March, will be made on June 1st.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Corn is worth $4 per barrel in Madison county.

A lot of 4-year-old mules sold in Shelby last week at $110 per head.

Robert McAlister bought of Blodoe & Bailey, 12 Cotswold sheep, at $10 per head.

WANTED.—To grow 25 or 30 head of yearling and two-year-old cattle. Apply to J. H. Walker, McKinney Station.

Hundrick & Fleming sold last week to Richmond, Va., parties, 20 head of mules at $90 per head.—(Flemingburg Times.)

From March 5th to May 1st, A. S. McCann put on yearlings an average of 140 pounds, and calves 130 pounds.—(Harrodsburg Observer.)

Joseph Spalding, Esq., bought last Monday, of D. C. Terhune, of Mercer, 20 head of yearling mare mules, an extra fine lot, at $65 per head.

"Ingleside," an elegant estate of 203 acres near the limits of Lexington, sold last Monday to Mrs. Mary D. Gibson at $114.25 per acre. This tract has sold as high as $200 per acre in better days.

John M. Hall purchased of various parties 20 head of yearlings at $21.75; 10 3-year-olds at $26; 13 two and three-year-olds at $19; 2 cows at $19; 1 yearling, $10, and 9 2-year-old heifers at $14.25.

Joe Spears, of Bourbon, raised two thousand pounds of tobacco and sold at $10 per hundred. Will Hamilton raised forty acres and sold at $12.50 per hundred. So well satisfied are they that this year the farmers will plant twenty-five and the latter sixty acres.—(C. J.)

CORRECTION.—The Danville Advocate, inadvertently, no doubt, credits to the Lexington Gazette an extract from the report of Dr. Coviling's address, which was furnished this paper last week by a Stanford Doctor.

ARRIVED FOR SEEDING.—A party of Stanford boys went to Green River a few days ago and indulged, we suppose, in the unlawful act of seeding. Anyhow, on their return a bogus warrant was served on them, when one (Pete Hampton) became so alarmed that he sought the assistance of a lawyer at once. The entire party had given themselves away before they discovered the joke.

A BLIGHT RAIN.—Fell on Wednesday evening, which, although not sufficient to do any great amount of good, has served to enliven the parched vegetation to a considerable degree. The show for corn at present is gloomy, and wheat is heading out before attaining half its growth. Unless a good rain falls soon, all kinds of crops will necessarily be cut short.

A LICENSE BUT NO MARRIAGE.—Yesterday a negro man named Brown Preyer, who said he was from North Carolina, went to the Clerk's office and asked for license to marry Ann Leach, of Tennessee, whom he represented as a colored woman of lawful age. The paper was issued, and Preyer obtained the services of Johnathan Moore, of the colored Baptist Church to go to McKinney Station to tie the knot. Arriving there, Moran saw that the woman was white, and fearing that he would lay himself liable if he became a party to the misrepresentation, he refused to proceed with the ceremony. The woman admitted that she had no negro blood in her veins, but said her father was an Indian and her mother a white woman. Moran then returned to town with the license to get Mr. Blair's advice, but it is hardly necessary to state what that was. Suffice it to say that the party will have to seek elsewhere for happiness. Moran deserves much credit for his action, which was mainly and law revering.

MARRIAGES.

The Clerk of Boyle has not issued a marriage license since about the 1st of April.

WOLFEY—MOORE.—Last week in Pulaski, Mr. S. T. Wolfey to Miss Catherine Moore.

WHIFFLES—GOODE.—On the 16th Mr. Joseph H. Wheeler and Miss Martha S. Gooch were made one flesh.

CHAMBERS—ANDERSON.—Mr. John Chambers, a few days over 21, was united in matrimony to Miss Emily Anderson, a sweet little 16-year-old, on the 21st.

CARSON—PARKER.—In Louisville, last Thursday, Mr. Z. T. Carson, formerly of Crab Orchard, and Miss Eugenia Parker, an estimable and accomplished lady, were united in marriage.

A WOMAN in Ohio, last week, was divorced from her husband and married to another man by the same Judge that made the decree, less than ten minutes intervening between the snapping of the old bonds and the putting on of the new.

Hundrick & Fleming sold last week to Richmond, Va., parties, 20 head of mules at $90 per head.—(Flemingburg Times.)

From March 5th to May 1st, A. S. McCann put on yearlings an average of 140 pounds, and calves 130 pounds.—(Harrodsburg Observer.)

Joseph Spalding, Esq., bought last Monday, of D. C. Terhune, of Mercer, 20 head of yearling mare mules, an extra fine lot, at $65 per head.

"Ingleside," an elegant estate of 203 acres near the limits of Lexington, sold last Monday to Mrs. Mary D. Gibson at $114.25 per acre. This tract has sold as high as $200 per acre in better days.

John M. Hall purchased of various parties 20 head of yearlings at $21.75; 10 3-year-olds at $26; 13 two and three-year-olds at $19; 2 cows at $19; 1 yearling, $10, and 9 2-year-old heifers at $14.25.

Joe Spears, of Bourbon, raised two thousand pounds of tobacco and sold at $10 per hundred. Will Hamilton raised forty acres and sold at $12.50 per hundred. So well satisfied are they that this year the farmers will plant twenty-five and the latter sixty acres.—(C. J.)

Clark county farmers will get about $20,000 for their wool this Spring, and some think the lambs will bring at least $100,000.

In three days last week a firm of Nashville grain dealers bought 150,000 bushels of corn in the vicinity of Henderson, Ky., at from 38 to 40c. per bushel.

MY STERLING COUNTRY.—About 200 head of cattle on the market; three and four-year-olds selling from $18 to $23 per head; yearlings and 2-year-olds at $19 to $18 per head; work cattle at from $60 to $85.

GROSBETTONS COURT DAY.—From 550 to 650 cattle on the market, all sold at prices ranging from 3c. to 4c. A few broke mules selling for from $50 to $100 per head. Many common horses on sale at low prices.

LOUISVILLE.—The cattle market remains unchanged, good to extra shippers to best butchers bringing 4c to 4c; medium, 3c to 4c; thin to medium, 1c to 3c. Hogs, $3.60 to $3.70 for choice; $3.40 to $3.50 for fair to good, and $2.75 to $3 for common. The sheep and lamb trade is dull. Extra of the former command 3c to 4c; common to medium, 1c to 3c. Lambs, extra, 4c to 5c; common, 3c to 4c.

DANVILLE COURT DAY.—Capt. Sam'l M. Boone, Auctioneer. There was fully six hundred cattle on the market, and but for the extreme dry weather, would have brought better prices. Considering every thing, the day may be set down as a dull one. 1 sold 150 head at the following prices: 22 head common calves, $12.75 per head; 31 mountain calves, $9.00; 20 fair grade yearlings, $22.25; 20 do, $22; 13 do, calves, $16.10; 50 do, calves, $17.10; 1 plug horse, $42; 1 set harness, 14; 1 buggy, $25. 1 also sold 10 shares in the first National Bank at $109 per share.

H. T. Bush, Auctioneer: About 600 cattle on the market, mostly of young stock, and of first quality. 1 sold one bunch of 25 yearlings, weighing about 600 pounds, for $26.10 per head; 16 do, $22.05; 30 at $24; 27 at $23; 6 rough oxen in strong condition, at $3.50 per hundred. The remainder of my sales in same proportion. 1 offered several good horses, ranging from $60 to $125. No mules on the market. The anticipation of dry weather had some effect upon the market, although I sold the most of my offerings at fair prices.

THE LOUISVILLE RACES.—Commenced Tuesday, with a dash of 14 miles, for an Association purse of $300—$50 to 2nd horse. There were ten starters. It was an exciting race, and ended in a dead heat between Glenmore and Fortuna. Time, 2:10. The great event of the day was the Derby, for 3-year-olds, $50 entrance, pay or play, $1,500 added, $200 to 2nd horse, dash of 14 miles. Nine starters, and 56 nominations. Lord Murphy, a Tennessee horse, took the prize in 2:37; Faleetto, 2nd; Strathmore, 3rd; Farris' Buckle was in the race. The third was mile heats for a purse of $350. Eleven entered, and all hands started. King Faw won the first and third heats, and Ella Rowett, second. Time, 1:44; 1:42; and 1:45.

WEDNESDAY, 21st.

The first race was the Alexander Stakes, for 2-year-olds, $50 entrance, $500 added, $100 to 2nd, half mile. Seven started. Kemball won in 49, Luke Blackburn, 2nd. The Louisville Ladies' Stake was won by Obervanda, half mile, in 49; Moderator, 2nd. The selling race, mile heats, $250 to 1st, and $50 to 2nd horse, had nine starters. Bill Dillon took the 2nd and 3rd heats in 1:45; and 147. Chesapeake won the other in 1:44.

LAND SALE.—Judge J. M. Phillips was over last week and sold a tract of land lying near Caldwell's Station, belonging to Lewis Mills, containing 76 acres, to the highest bidder for $100. The same tract was sold a few years since for $500. W. S. Gooch was the purchaser.

NEWBY NOTES.—Mr. Proctor Morgan, of Danville, Casey county, was at J. E. Williams' this week, and reports fine rains in his vicinity last Saturday and Sunday. He also reports a presentation by his wife, of a nine-pound boy, on the 10th inst. Mr. J. R. Williams returned to his home in Casey county, on Wednesday last. Mr. T. C. Marlow has contracted with him to rebuild and repair his saw mill, for which he will return in about three weeks.

THE SERMON.—Preached here by J. B. Williams on last Sunday, from John, 17th chap. 4th verse, and 19th chap. and 30th verse, was replete with originality, and full of love inspiring thoughts, suggested by that glorious subject. He represented the Redeeming blood of Christ, as running both ways from that day, back thro' all ages, and also through to all the future generations down to the present. His form of expressions and striking illustrations reminds us very much of the single, but forcible style of the renowned Bunyan, who, endowed the Bedford fair with a literary celebrity not inferior to that of the Arno and Avon. We hope to hear him more at length at a future day.

Refrigerator.

ARE YOU THIRSTY?—Go to Peacock's elegant Soda Fountain and be refreshed.

NOW IS YOUR TIME TO PAINT.—White Lead and Linseed Oil at Peacock's—the best quality, and on terms which can not fail to be satisfactory.

ONCE IS BAD ENOUGH.—The farmers have generally been compelled to plant their corn fields a second time, in consequence of the failure of the seed to germinate.

TO BE DRAMATIZED.—In the death of new items it is proposed to dramatize a scene which was witnessed and enjoyed by a few at your Depot on Saturday last. It is to be entitled "The Infant Scene Shifter, or, Col. W. and Dr. Lee. Not a success in the role of the Dry Nurses." Copy right to be carefully secured. The proceeds will be devoted to a premium to the successful inventor of a self-adjusting, and self-acting infant costume in all its details. As the production is now being projected, and as its successful completion will tax both time and talent, you will excuse the absence of a letter this week.

Englewood's Mill.

DEJECTED.—The dry weather is causing the farmers to look rather dejected.

PREACHING.—Rev. Robert Caldwell will preach at New Providence Church next Sunday, at 11 o'clock.

CAT FISH.—Mr. Sam Engleman caught a cat fish a few nights ago that measured 23 inches from tip to tip, and weighed 8 pounds.

BUILDING.—Mr. Gabe Gaines has commenced the foundation work of his new dwelling, and will be ready to commence the work in a few days.

DARTARLY.—Some scoundrel in this vicinity, too cowardly to attack a man, is trying to get up his reputation as being a "bad o' n" by shooting stock at night. Mr. Spenser, Hubble says that he has had two horses shot recently.

INTERVIEWED BRUCE.—Judging from the number of new suits of clothes we saw at Church last Sunday, several of our boys were at the fire at Lexington, or made a raid on G. H. Bruce's cheap clothing house at Stanford, one of the two.

SOLDIERS AT THE POLLS.—The election for voting a tax to build a school-house in this district, has been changed from the 27th to the 31st of this month. The vote will be pretty equally divided. There are prominent men on both sides electing; excitement is growing intense. No doubt that we will have to petition to President Hayes for a squad of soldiers to keep order on the day of the election.

PERSONAL.—Miss Jennie Buchanan, one Crab Orchard's brightest jewels, spent several days with Miss Lucella Bright, of this place. Miss Carrie Harlan, of this place, has gone on a visit to Miss Bettie Dennis, of Stanford. Messrs. William and John Slaughter, of Mercer, are visiting their sister, Mrs. G. H. McCanley, of this place. Mr. Frank Engleman contemplates starting West by the 19th of June. He is in very delicate health, and his physician advised him to travel, thinking that a change of climate would be beneficial to him.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Lancaster.

A BIG SHOOT.—A patent peanut roaster has attracted the curious on the public square.

DEED.—On the 17th inst., Mrs. Hillary Gibbs, of consumption. Funeral services on Sunday, at the Baptist Church, by Rev. J. M. Bruce.

RELIGIOUS.—Dr. Hopson's services at the Christian Church are largely attended, and all listen with commendable avidity to the logical discourses of the learned divine.

HONEYMOONING.—Mr. John S. Gill and bride (recently Miss Maggie Kinnaird) have taken immediate possession of the new country residence of the bridegroom. The dwelling has been made as dainty a nest for the young lady as modern luxury can devise.

PERSONAL.—Hon. G. W. Dunlap is in Danville this week. The Knight Templar delegation from this place returned on Saturday night, eloquent in praise of Henderson hospitality and Masonic pageantry. Mrs. Geo. Denny, Jr., returned on Tuesday from a week's visit at Danville.

PROBABLY FATAL SHOT.—On Saturday night a difficulty occurred near Bryantsville between Wm. Mayfield and Frank Neal, both in liquor. The result was a pistolshot which penetrated Neal's body and will probably prove fatal. Marshal Ford arrested Mayfield and lodged him in Castle Dillon of this place.

HORSE'S THROAT CUT.—Deputy U. S. Marshal A. A. Burnside has just returned from another successful moonshine trip. He and his posse demolished about a dozen illicit beer houses in Clay county. Revenge was not slow in asserting itself, however, for some mountain fender swooped down upon the horses of the regulators while quietly grazing at night and cut the throats of three choice animals.

UNDER SPECTATION.—On Monday an interesting case of circumstantial evidence entertained the frequenters of the Courtroom. Early in April the body of John Preston, a young man who had mysteriously disappeared from the lower end of the county, was found in the Kentucky River, a short distance from the mouth of Canoe Creek. A deep gash on the side of his head led to the suspicion that he had met his death by foul means, and the colored boys, John and Moses Ray, and two white boys, James Shearer and Thomas Brim, were accordingly arrested and tried before Judge Duncan. James Shearer was held over under bond of $500 to answer at Circuit Court in August, and falling to give the bond was remanded to jail. The warrants against the other parties were dismissed.
